

College of Liberal Arts and Human Sciences Department of Sociology
Bachelor of Science in Sociology
Major: Sociology
Major Option: American Indian Studies

For students graduating in calendar year 2022 and for student date of entry under UG Catalog 2020-2021

Checksheet: This checksheet specifies the requirements for a major in sociology with an American Indian Studies option.

Number of Credits for a Bachelor of Science in Sociology: 120 credits.
74 credits must be completed beyond what is required for a sociology major with an American Indian Studies option.

Number of Credits for a Sociology Major with an American Indian Studies Option: 46 credits.
The 46 credits include 22 credits of sociology core degree courses.

Number of Credits of Free Electives: 29 credits.

Number of Credits for the Pathways for General Education Curriculum: 45 credits.
All students with a sociology major with an American Indian Studies option are required to complete the Pathways for General Education Curriculum.

Double Majors in the Department of Sociology: The Department of Sociology offers a major in sociology and a major in criminology. Students are permitted to obtain both majors. Courses in the sociology core degree can meet the requirements of both majors, but none of the required or elective courses taken for either major can count toward the other.

Minimum GPA: A minimum 2.0 in-major GPA and 2.0 overall GPA.
All courses with a SOC prefix, AINS prefix, or cross-listed with sociology and/or American Indian Studies are included in the calculation of the in-major GPA.

Grade Requirement: All courses used to fulfill the requirements of the sociology major with an American Indian Studies option must be taken for a letter grade of A-F.

Requirements for Satisfactory Progress: Students must have completed Introductory Sociology (SOC 1004), Social Research Methods (SOC 3204), Sociological Theory (SOC 3104), Introduction to American Indian Studies (AINS 1104) (HUM 1104), Contemporary Native American Literatures (AINS 2804) (ENGL 2804), and 3 additional credits of sociology prior to attempting 72 credits (including transfer, advanced placement, advanced standing, and credit by examination).

Upon having attempted 60 credits, students have an in-major GPA of 2.0 and an in-major GPA of 2.0 thereafter to be considered as making satisfactory progress toward the degree.

If satisfactory progress is not made, procedures will be followed as required by the Academic Eligibility Policy.

Prerequisites: Check the Undergraduate Course Catalog & Academic Policies for prerequisites.

Advising: Regular contact with the academic advisor for sociology is not required but strongly encouraged. Call (540) 231-8971 to schedule an appointment. The Department of Sociology main office is located in 560 McBryde.
